The order of the day, the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, was not reached, but will probably come up to-morrow.

J. Edward Stacey, lately a revenue dejective, was arrested to-day at the defendant, instance of Supervisor Emory, charged with levying black-mail on distillers. The affidavits of distillers from different parts of the State shows that he obtained large sums of money from them. Commissioner Campbell required him to give a bond for his apearance at the next term of the Sederal Court.
